Global '07

Advanced Nuclear Fuel Cycles and Systems

September 9-13, 2007
Boise, Idaho

Global 2007 Major Topics

1. Advanced Integrated Fuel Cycle Concepts
2. Spent Nuclear Fuel Reprocessing
3. Advanced Reprocessing Technology
4. Advanced Fuels and Materials
5. Advanced Waste Management Technology
6. Novel Concepts for Waste Disposal and Repository Development
7. Advanced Reactors
8. Partitioning and Transmutation
9. Hydrogen Production with Nuclear Energy
10. Developments in Nuclear Nonproliferation Technology, Policy, and Implementation
11. Sustainability and Expanded Global Utilization of Nuclear Energy
12. International Cooperation on Nuclear Energy

Summaries Due – January 26, 2007
Papers Selected – March 23, 2007
Authors Notified – March 30, 2007

Full Papers Due to ANS HQ
June 29, 2007

AMERICAN NUCLEAR SOCIETY

nuclear.inl.gov/global07

While in Idaho...

Hike, camp, fish or star gaze at the Bruneau Sand Dunes, one hour east of Boise.

See Idaho's lush forests, sky high mountains and high desert plains. Raft a wild river, sail a pristine lake or enjoy live jazz on a Sunday afternoon. There's adventure to pursue, places to discover and space to unwind.

In Idaho, you can choose from luxury resorts, convention hotels and exclusive condos to backcountry yurts and wilderness ranches. Idaho has accommodations to fit every taste and pocketbook. As you explore Idaho, discover world-class golf, gourmet meals and charming B&B's for less than you'd expect - in the most unexpected places.

World class whitewater rafting is popular on the Payette River near Boise.

Idaho's Thunder Mountain Line offers scenic railroad trips along the Payette River and through the mountains, summer and fall. Trips start in Horseshoe Bend, about one hour from Boise (photo by Ken Ziegenbein).

Visit any of the Web sites listed on this page for more information on the surprises awaiting you in Idaho.

For information on these attractions and more, visit the following Web sites:

Boise Convention and Visitors Bureau
boise.org

Downtown Boise Association
downtownboise.org

Official Idaho Travel and Tourism Guide
visitidaho.org

Idaho Grape Growers and Wine Producers Commission
idahowines.org

Idaho Department of Parks & Recreation
www.idahoparks.org

Idaho Outfitters and Guides Association
ioga.org

Ste. Chapelle Winery near Boise is just one of several area wineries that are open daily to visitors.