

Preliminary Agenda for 3rd Specialists Meeting on Component Failure Rate Data

General Atomics, DIII-D conference room, located at the DIII-D facility, 3483 Dunhill Street, San Diego, California 92121-1214

Monday 15 April, 2002

- 0815 Arrive at General Atomics, check in
- 0830 Meeting opening and welcome, by P. Petersen
- 0840 Task 5 status and meeting agenda, by L. Cadwallader
- 0850 DIII-D Overview of upcoming missions, including brief discussion of machine availability and the Trouble Report Database, by P. Petersen
- 1000 Break
- 1015 DIII-D Maintenance planning, by P. Petersen
- 1045 DIII-D spare parts inventory, by W. Cary
- 1130 Recent US data work and DIII-D data analysis plan, by L. Cadwallader
- noon Lunch
- 1330 Tour DIII-D and its auxiliaries, by P. Peterson
(at 1700 hours, the operating day ends and we can see the power supplies)
- 1730 Tour completed, end meeting for the day
- 1900 Dinner at Peter Petersen's home

Preliminary Agenda for 3rd Specialists Meeting on Component Failure Rate Data

General Atomics, DIII-D conference room

Tuesday 16 April, 2002

- 0815 Arrive at General Atomics, check in
- 0830 Computerized database progress and status, by T. Pinna
- 1045 Break
- 1100 Overview of recent data work in Italy, by T. Pinna
- 1130 Lunch
- 1300 Overview of recent data work in France, Japan, Germany, and the Russian Federation, by L. Cadwallader
- 1400 Report on JET data work, by F. Scaffidi-Argentina & T. Pinna
- 1430 Break
- 1445 Round table discussion of recent work, upcoming data needs, computerized database usage and future plans for Task 5
- How can Task 5 support ITER?
 - New Projects that will require data
 - Using the database
 - Arranging for the next task meeting time and location
- 1700 Meeting adjourned